

City Hall, Major Projects Top Citizens Group Study

A 10-man citizens steering committee was instructed by the council Monday to prepare a list of recommendations on top priority projects by June 30.

Projects listed as urgent in a nine-page preview of the citizens committee's duties were: acquisition of a civic center site to serve as administrative headquarters; adequate development of the city's water production and distribution facilities; additional library facilities; park and recreation facilities; an additional fire station and fire suppression equipment.

Mayor Joseph Verducci placed special emphasis on the expansion of joint city-school recreation and cultural facilities.

Hospital Added

Added to the priority list by Councilman Del Wilson was acquisition of a hospital site.

The committee will outline the major capital improvement needs, but will make no recommendations on financing, the council agreeing that this was under its jurisdiction.

The citizens group will have the full resources of city personnel and outside consultants at their disposal, according to the council.

First meeting of the group was called for next Monday.

The steering group will act only as an advisory body, but the council indicated in its outline to the committee that any recommendations made by the citizens group would receive strong support.

Other Action

In other action Monday, the council:

1. Held for further study bids from seven companies for supplying the city with gasoline.

2. Agreed, under protest, to contribute $27,480 as city's share for Skyline signals but directed City Manager Howard Stites to ask San Mateo county to pay half of the city's cost.

3. Learned that negotiations were nearly completed for turning over a portion of Westlake park to the Jefferson Elementary school.

The Town Record

By Monte Dayton

Many Coastiders, angry over delays in getting their own high school, have assailed Architect MARIO CIAMPI and trustees for the "extravagance" at Westmoor High school. They have continually described Westmoor as a "dream" school in a derogatory manner.

At Sunday's official dedication ceremonies for Westmoor, student body president BUCKY HYERS opened his remarks to the audience with, "On behalf of the students, I would like to thank the parents and civic-minded people who made this dream school a reality."

Bucky, of course, used the term "dream" in a highly respectful vein. It was not a put-up job.

It was conference time last week for two city officials, Mayor JOSEPH VERDUCCI being in Philadelphia for both the NCAA and American Football Coaches' sessions, and Councilman FRANCIS PACELLI in Los Angeles for a business conference.

Appeal Seen By Council On Cop Case

The city council tactfully avoided any mention of the Dave Johnstone court reversal Monday, but City Attorney Paul Hupf is preparing a petition to the supreme court to re-hear the case.

"They didn't tell me not to prepare it," was the way Hupf put it.

Johnstone, fired as a police inspector in 1955 after the district attorney charged he had "associated with a known gambler," won a nearly three-year legal battle recently when the district court of appeal said there was no justification for firing the officer.

The council's only recourse now is to ask the district court for a re-hearing or petition the supreme court to review the case. The latter strategy is expected. If the supreme court refuses to grant hearing, the council is at a dead end, and must return Johnstone to his police job.

Hupf said unless the new hearing was granted by the supreme court by March 3, the Johnstone reversal would be upheld. The council must submit its petition by February 11, he said.

The council was originally upheld in its action by the superior court of San Mateo county. Johnstone, through his attorney, Jack Fahey, has (Continued on Page 2)

Hey, You Hopefuls! Thursday First Day To Fling The Fedora

They're off and running! First day to take out nominating papers and file for the April 8 city council election is next Thursday, January 23. Positions of three incumbents, Michael De Bernardi, Sanford Vickers and Del Wilson, expire, and there appear to be plenty of hopefuls out to upset them.

Deadline for filing and registering to vote is noon, February 13.

The council formally adopted resolution of election Monday, and established voting hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The consolidation of precincts and naming of election places and officers will be announced soon.

From now on in, activity on the political scene should be fast and furious.

A LONELY ROAD

Coast Hiway 'Orphans'

Real Estate available: 2.41 miles of scenic Coast Highway. FREE.

That's the status of the section of Coast Highway between Skyline boulevard in Daly City and Edgemar on the Coastside. The state last week notified cities of Daly City and Pacifica that in mid-April it will formally relinquish its title to that section of highway to the two sister cities. Since the new Edgemar Freeway linking the Coastside and Skyline is expected to be ready in February, the state has no further need for the beautiful but problematical Coast Highway 1, otherwise known as Route 56.

The state is several hundred thousand dollars poorer over the years because of maintenance costs on the Coast road, which is continually eroded from above and undermined from below by the ocean.

Wiser from witnessing the state's experience, neither Daly City nor Pacifica want any part of the highway which is being decided to them.

It apparently will be only a matter of time until the historical route is abandoned, since neither city can afford the maintenance costs.

The Daly City council decided Monday to get together Monday with Pacifica officials to solve the dilemma.

Poll Me Next Time, Says Official On Stites Issue

Next time you tell the city manager you want him to stay, see me, Councilman Michael De Bernardi said in so many words Monday.

De Bernardi expressed aggravation over the fact that he was not "polled" by city manager Howard Stites when Stites recently asked a "vote of confidence" to determine whether he should stay in Daly City or take another manager position offered him.

De Bernardi said that a policy should be adopted which requires the manager to contact each councilman on matters of import.

Three councilmen, Joseph Verducci, Del Wilson and Sanford Vickers were contacted by Stites last month, and each indicated he wanted Stites to turn down the new job and stay in Daly City.

"Why should he have asked you," inquired Verducci. "He knew how you would stand." De Bernardi has been an outspoken critic of Stites and his policies.

Zita Starts New Homes Next Month

Construction will begin on Zita Corporation's $50 million St. Francis Heights subdivision in about four weeks, builder George McKeon said today.

The McKeon company, which has built more than 10,000 Northern California homes in the past decade, plans to construct 2000 homes within the 250-acre subdivision. They will range in price from $15,000 to $18,000. Ten types of homes are planned.

Grading operations on the property west of Junipero Serra boulevard and south of Broadmoor went on a round-the-clock basis this week. Since November, the builders have moved more than a million yards of dirt per month in leveling the hilly acreage.

The development will include an ultra-modern, 25-acre shopping center, fronting Junipero Serra, three elementary schools, and parks for recreation. McKeon said his firm was at least a year behind schedule on the subdivision, due to a lengthy court suit on small portions of the property. This litigation was settled about three months ago.

Don't Fret If Your Water's Dirty; It's All For Insurance

If your water's a little murky this Friday, don't fret.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters will be conducting a series of fire flow tests in Daly City beginning Friday. These tests occasionally disturb the water in the mains and discolor it, but the water is in no way contaminated by the tests and is safe for use, according to Otis Calhoun, director of public works. The water will clear up a short time after the tests, Calhoun said.

These tests are a part of the survey now being conducted by the board of fireunderwriters to determine fire insurance rates for Daly City property.

New Headquarters For Water Office Approved By City

Lease of property at 3 and 5 Wellington avenue, next to city hall, for the new water department headquarters, was approved Monday by the council.

The property will be leased from owner John Fahey Jr. at a price of $225 a month. The council chose the Fahey property in preference to the building at 6328 Mission, adjacent to the present water department headquarters at 6434 Mission, because the new facility would be closer to city hall.

The Mission lease would have been $200 a month with the augmented space, but the city would have had to pay for alterations. Dora Kurth is owner of the adjacent Mission street buildings.

George Watts, director of finance, said the water department would probably be moved out of the Mission office in six weeks.

The Fahey lease was approved, 3-2. Councilmen Michael De Bernardi and Francis Pacelli opposing the contract.

Kidnaper Committed To State Hospital

Gerald Rogers, 31, the San Francisco warehouseman who kidnaped two Daly City children here December 2, has been committed to Atascadero State hospital as a sexual psychopath.

Rogers, hospitalized earlier for a similar offense, did not harm the nine-year-old girl and her four-year-old brother. He took them from their parents car on Mission street. Police nabbed Rogers with the children minutes later in his car at the foot of San Bruno mountain.

Broadmoor Raps White Street Plan

A delegation of aroused villagers last week sat in on the directors' meeting of the Broadmoor Property Owners' association and requested the association's support in their fight to halt San Mateo county plans to open White street as a direct thoroughfare linking Broadmoor to the Westlake shopping center.

Led by Ken Meitz, 520-87th street, and Ken Brugge, 515-87th street, the homeowners denounced the street project and pointed out that "support of the White street proposal by any of the elected county officials would be a betrayal of the voters' mandates."

Heated discussions sparked the lively meeting, which was also attended by County Supervisor Tom Callan, Elementary Schools Superintendent H. Z. Weibel, County Engineer Fred Wilson, Police Commissioner N. N. Hilton, and homeowners from the 87th-White street area. Legal support was provided by the villagers by Tom Jenkins, BPOA counsel who, eight years ago, led the same fight when the White street project first came up.

Need 'Yes' In Election March 18

The Jefferson Elementary school district voters on March 18 will be asked to approve a record $8,300,000 bond-state aid election to help finance school needs here during the next four years.

Trustees set the election Monday night following a meeting of the Citizen's Committee For Needed Schools, headed by Mrs. J. D. White of Colma.

Two issues will be on the ballot. First is to give the district permission to issue $1,300,000 in local bonds to bring it up to legal capacity, a prerequisite for state aid. Second will ask that the district be allowed to borrow $7 million in state funds.

According to Supt. H. Z. Weibel, the bond redemption tax of 45 cents per $100 will not be affected if the public votes yes on the measures. But it appears probable the district will have to call a special tax election later this spring to bolster its operating fund, he said.

Approval of the March 18 issues will allow the district to get funds for nine new schools, three new sites and the three classroom additions to Olympia school.

The citizen's committee is charting a heavy publicity campaign, designed to give the public the facts through questions and answers, according to Mrs. White. Persons interested in helping the cause should call her at JU 4-9511. Approximately 30 citizens have volunteered thus far.

In other special business Monday night, the board okayed preliminary agreement with the city for joint-use of Westlake park. Under the pact, the district will have at its disposal, during school hours, approximately 8 acres of the park. The K-6 school, located on the basin property, will cover about 7.5 acres.

Weibel said his staff and the city would soon meet to finalize the park agreement.

21-ACRE PLOT FOR BUSINESS, APARTMENTS

A February 11 hearing date was set by the planning commission Tuesday on application of Michael Callan to zone 21 acres of property south of Edgemar road for commercial and apartment development.

Eleven acres of the land is up for commercial zoning, while Callan seeks R-3, or apartment status, for the remaining acreage.

The property lies between St. Francis Heights and Westmoor High school.

Tentative map of the 21-acre parcel was held over until February 11, pending exact realignment of Edgemar road.

Also approved were Caesar-Callan company's request for variances on their apartment project, allowing them to reduce front yard setbacks from the usual 15 feet to no setback and up to 10 feet. The 75 per cent off-street parking variance was also approved for the apartment project.

County Delegation Leads 'Band Wagon' At Demo Convention

San Mateo county's 32-man delegation to the State Democratic Convention in Fresno last weekend had the distinction of being the only delegation voting 100 per cent "right" on all candidates.

It was, in fact, the 32 votes of the local delegation that clinched the endorsement of Bert Betts for state treasurer. Betts received 860 votes on the first ballot, against his opponent's 7991.

Numbered among the San Mateo county delegates were seven Daly City-Colma representatives: Thomas Noonan, Julius Castelan, Elizabeth Brawley, Stanley Brown, Louis Rief, Lawrence Frieberg and Dave Friedmanberg.

Miss Daly City To 'Junk' Title For Matrimony

Tough luck, fellows. Miss Daly City of 1957 is about to surrender her title.

Lovely Phyllis Adams, 18, of Westlake, will step to the altar this fall with Stanley F. Jones, 21, of San Francisco.

Their engagement was announced Christmas Eve at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David K. Adams, 94 Brooklawn avenue.

The prospective groom is a graduate of Rioridan High and attended City College of San Francisco. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent A. Jones, 47 Farragut street.

Miss Daly City graduated from Balboa High in San Francisco last June.

3. Held over to April 8 request for C-1 zoning in a portion of Parcel III, Lands of Zanone, and a portion of Parcel III-A, lands of Schenone.
4. Set hearing February 11 on application of Henry Cosmos, 239 Knowles avenue, for variance to construct two-car garage at 181 Los Banos avenue.
5. Held over to April 8 request of Rudolph Fellman to rezone to C-1 a portion of his property at 110 Bismark street for expansion of his roofing business.
6. Recommended abandonment of portions of Hill and Hanover streets, as requested by Jefferson Elementary School district.

JESD Trustees Set Two More Meetings

Jefferson Elementary school board has two more meetings this month—a regular session next Wednesday, and a special meeting on Wednesday, January 29. Both begin at 8 p.m. in the district office.

February board meetings will be held the first and third Wednesday of the month, February 5 and 19.

Public is encouraged to attend all board meetings by Supt. H. Z. Weibel.

Personnel Board Sets February 7 For Police Exam

Personnel board Tuesday set February 7 as date of the written exam for two positions on the Daly City police force.

Candidates, who must report to city hall, must have high school education or equivalent, be between the ages of 21 and 31, weigh between 150 to 200 pounds, with minimum height of 5-8.

The written test will be followed by a physical exam and an agility test.

The board also reviewed eligibility lists for the following vacancies: typist clerk, police dispatcher clerk, engineering draftsman, public works inspector and recreation supervisor.

The top candidates have been notified and will be interviewed by individual department heads before being appointed.

Nixon once played third string end at Whittier, a team that Verducci's San Francisco State Gators occasionally engaged in the football wars. So the V.P. and the mayor had a few nostalgic words, even though the coach is a dyed-in-the-wool democrat.

The joint tenancy arrangement must not have come up to snuff with the Colma building code.

Our apologies: Councilman DEL WILSON did not vote "yes" on the firing of police inspector DAVE JOHNSTONE in 1955.

Wilson didn't vote at all. He was in Veterans hospital at the time the council acted on the controversial matter, 3-1.

Wilson says he doesn't know how he would have voted had he been there.

By the bye, the city councilmen will soon have JOHN FAHEY JR., the attorney who defeated the city on the Johnstone case, as their landlord.

Fahey is renting his former office space at 3 and 5 Wellington avenue to the city, to be used as headquarters for the water department.

Pisani Observes 30th Year With Bank Of America

Louis Pisani, manager of Bank of America's Daly City branch who began his career as a junior clerk, this Saturday observes his 30th anniversary with the statewide bank.

Daly City manager for almost three years, Pisani was named to his present position after seven years as manager of the Half Moon Bay branch.

Born in Italy, Pisani joined the bank's head office in San Francisco in 1928 and the following year was assigned to the Castro-Market branch where he advanced from batch clerk to lending and operations officer.

He was promoted to general lending officer at the San Bruno branch in 1946 and in 1948 assumed his first managerial post, at Half Moon Bay.

A director of the Daly City Chamber of Commerce and Peninsula Symphony Association, Pisani is also active in the Lions Club, United Crusade, Salvation Army, National Association for Infertile Paralysis and St. Matthews church in San Mateo.

Pisani and his wife, Olga, are parents of two sons, Louis Paul and Robert David, and live at 611 Nevada avenue, San Mateo.

Daly City Driver Awaits Jury Trial

Drunk driving case against Julian L. Heath, 299 A Miriam street, has been continued for jury trial verdict on February 13 in the municipal court of Judge Thomas L. Bocci.

fare plan, Weibel pointed out today's critical need for school space. Doelger, he told the crowd, was offering the school board a site in return for the school officials' reversal of their stand, so that the county can build the White street extension to the shopping center.

Wilson, explaining the county's views towards Doelger's offer of $25,000 worth of fill with which to build the street, pointed out that "if we are going to extend White street at all, the county must accept Doelger's offer now, or spend twice this amount if we delay decision on the project and lose the option on Doelger's offer."

The homeowners, however, remained unconvinced.

"If we're going to be cost-conscious," argued Meitz, "why don't we look at the thousands of dollars put into the sprinkler system, paving and general improvement of the school grounds, all of which will go to waste when we tear up Garden Village playground to make room for the street? And what about the thousands more we would need for the fence to keep the children off the street and the underpass to provide them with access from west of the street to the school premises?"

Traffic Hazards

Meitz also pointed out that earlier studies of the proposal, conducted by the state highway office, forecast increased safety and traffic hazards in the event White street is extended to Westlake.

Supervisor Callan, pledging that he, as an individual, would vote against the street proposal, pointed an accusing finger at the school board, whose insistence on county acceptance of the Doelger offer led to re-opening of the White street case before county supervisors.

At the close of the meeting, the BPOA board of directors went on record as opposing the school board abandonment of the White street right-of-way, following this with association President Ed Lee's appointment of Meitz and Brugge as co-chairmen of a special committee to halt White street extension.

The committee will map a vigorous campaign in this area to rally homeowners behind the group in an effort to keep White street the dead end which it now is.

Woman Driver Hits Would-Be Motorist: Arrested As Drunk

Marguerite M. Sturtevant, 41, a cook who lives at 242 Miriam street, was arrested on suspicion of drunk driving last week after her weaving vehicle struck down another driver as he was getting into his car.

When officers reported to the scene, Vista Grande and Mission streets, the woman denied she had been involved, stating that she was "on my way home."

En route to Junipero Serra hospital she admitted "having several drinks." A sobriety test confirmed that she was intoxicated.

Slightly injured after being bumped by the Stutevant auto was Wayne Carr, of 531 Hillside boulevard.

The woman was released on $500 bail to appear in court next week.

MEDITATE ON PRINTING WEEK

This week, January 12 through 18, has been designated as "Printing Week" by all the various national organizations of the printing and publishing industries in order to recognize the valuable contributions being made by printing to our national economy and technology.

Printing Week will be observed throughout the United States, as well as on the Peninsula, by educational exhibits and other events serving to illustrate how printing touches every phase of our community life.

Printing, a field in which we are proud to claim an association both in the job work and newspaper branches, opens the storehouses of knowledge to all mankind.

The progress and use of the graphic arts, since the introduction of separate, movable types by Gutenberg in 1440, has spread culture, knowledge, science and learning throughout the world.

It is appropriate that we and the people of this city should pause during Printing Week and give thought to the benefits enjoyed by us and our civilization through the invention and development of the art of printing.

The mayor has issued a proclamation requesting citizens of the city to join with those in the printing industries of the Peninsula, who have been responsible for the inauguration of Printing Week, in recognizing the contributions that have been made by the printing arts to the spiritual, educational and industrial needs of mankind.

Printing, particularly in San Francisco and the Peninsula, ranks as one of the leading industries and provides the livelihood for thousands of people, many of whom live right here.

But bread is not the only thing which printing provides. Printing is the very foundation of our culture.

Meditate on this during the week, when you will find yourself exposed to the art of printing in at least a thousand different variations.

Printing Week most certainly deserves this seven-day spot on the calendar.

Younger Pushes New Pay Policy

Congressman J. Arthur Younger today introduced a new and revolutionary postal employees pay bill that would take this vital issue out of the hands of Congress and put postal and civil service salaries on a regional basis.

Younger declared that he had introduced the bill after conferring with local postal leaders during the Congressional recess and his strong conviction that the formula will provide a workable solution to the problem of paying postal employees a proper wage in high living cost areas such as San Mateo county.

The bill puts the wage problem in the hands of the Postmaster General to be handled through a wage board "or any other method of determining wages which best serves" the purpose.

"I am firmly convinced that adequate pay for these employees in high living cost areas will never be granted under our present system of setting a nationwide scale of pay," Younger asserted.

"It is also my firm conviction that the determination of wage rates by Congress only results in making a political football out of the process and that Congress does not have either the means or facilities for adequately determining the proper wage rate in the various regions for postal employees or classified civil service employees," Younger stated.

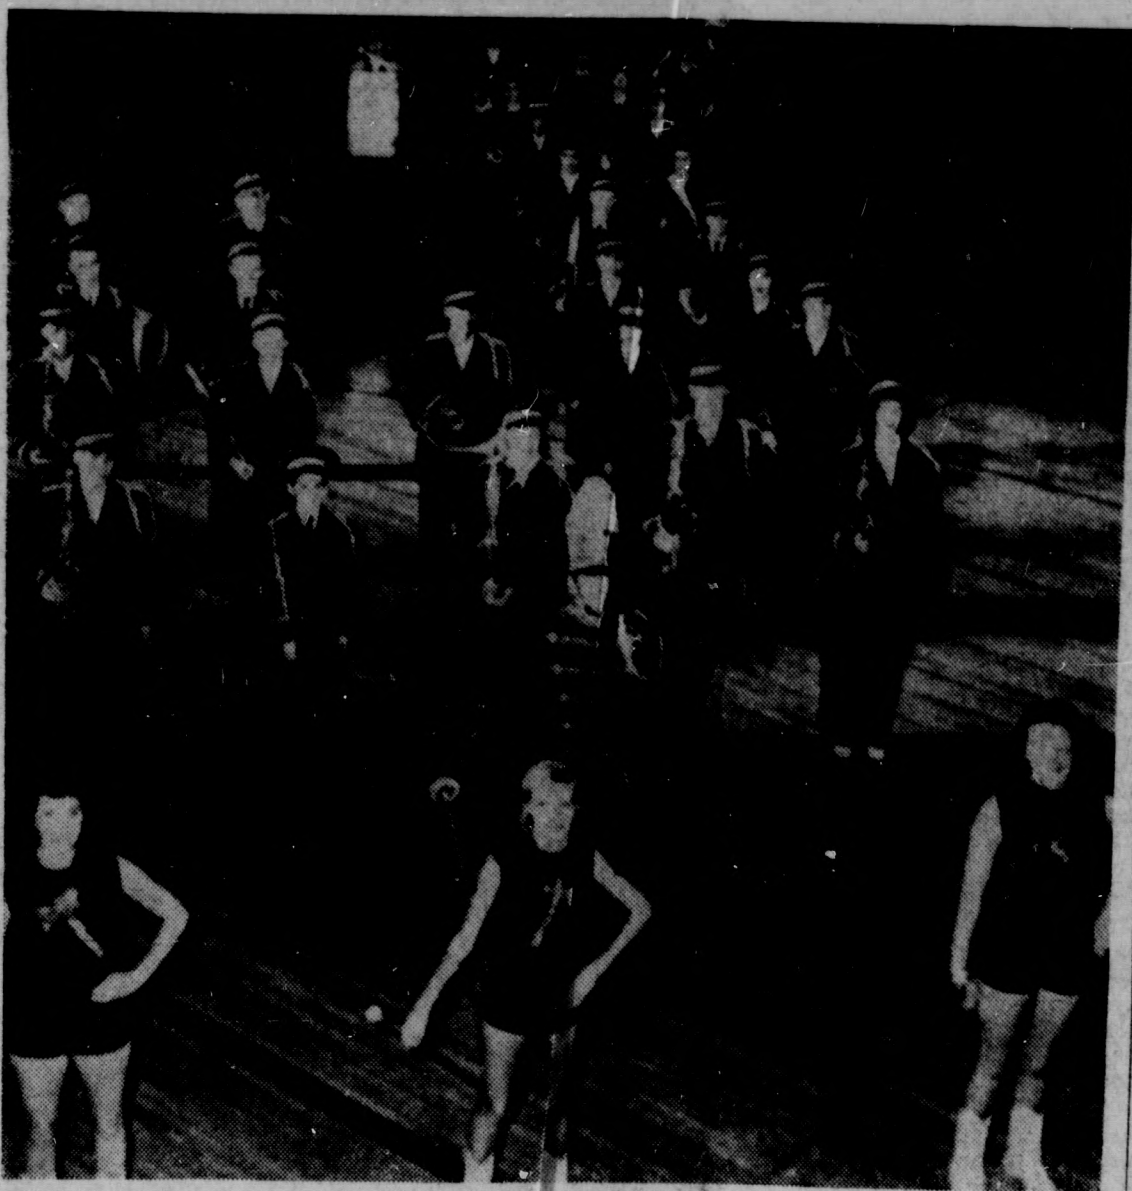

Sunset Nursery Invites Parents For Open House

As part of the annual observation of Nursery School Week, Sunset Nursery School, one of 11 parent-sponsored co-operatives, will open its doors to the public January 20 to 24. This will give interested parents an opportunity to see what a cooperative nursery school is and what it offers both child and parent.

For the child there are creative activities, supervised outdoor play and the chance to learn cooperation with others. The parents also enjoy these activities with the children plus adult education classes and parent participation in the running of the school.

These activities are supervised by the school's director, Mrs. Helen Hatchett, and two assistants, all qualified nursery school teachers.

Public is invited to visit Sunset Nursery School, 4245 Lawton street January 20 to 24, between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. For further information, call SE 1-9535.

JEFFERSON High's marching band, the best in the school's history, lines up for the lensman in the traditional Block J formation. Some 45 strong, when at full strength, the band performed admirably during the recent football campaign. Richard Larson, band instructor out of San Francisco State, deserves much of the credit for the proficiency of the young musicians. Frank Tower is the drum major. Majorettes are Mary Ann Morgan, Barbara Mattes and Gerry Tower. The instrument tooters and toters are: by Estrada, Jack Hubby, Bill Grimes, Mike Cox, Ben Neath, Robert Alverio, Richard Erickson, Norman Cimer, Ken Bennett, Bob Bisset, Denise Conway, Bernd Rivera, Dennis Marc, Ralf Gutierrez, Paula Brazaell, Imon Brazell, Dick Kuhn, Gene Tiedje, Gene Firth, Laurina Young, Virginia Pezzola, Carol Boyer, Dick Fudge, Fred Howard, Oscar Hunsperger, Jerry Morgan, Linda Weiler, Gail Vairs, Doug Burch, Bob Massei, Ron Sailor, Charles De Arman, Pete Baza, Jay Reinstra and Dave Aitken. Sergeant Thomas and Staff Sergeant Robert Mahurin man the new office which is open daily from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. The telephone number at the be reached after working hours new office is PL 6-4110, and Sergeant Thomas said he can be reached at EV 6-62.

'KIP' Workshop Gves Local Youngsters Their Big Break

Operation "KIP" is on its way in Daly City.

It stands for "Kids In Performance," a full community-encompassing talent workshop, designed for year-round service to promote the youth of the area.

Mrs. Kay Irvine, of 1257 Brunswick street, is its founder. Kids aged 6 to 19 are eligible for membership, irrespective of race, creed or color.

Mrs. Irvine and her staff need more adult volunteers to supervise the program. Regular meetings are held the second, third and fourth Tuesdays of each month, from 7 to 9 p.m., in the War Memorial building on Mission street.

Basic purpose of KIP, as outlined by Mrs. Irvine, are: To combat the idea that "little children grow into juveniles and juveniles become delinquents."

To provide a workshop for constructive activities and projects for young people who plead for a chance to "do the things we like to do and the freedom to do it ourselves."

To interest adults in guiding young people into the creative arts; to interest young people in the idea of brotherhood of man; to instill the belief that "peace begins on our block."

A giant rally, to get the "KIP" ball rolling, was staged this Tuesday evening at the Community Center. Response was so great that there's little doubt Mrs. Irvine's project will be fruitful.

Through KIP, the community's talented and "undiscovered" boys and girls will have both the opportunity and avenues to present and perpetuate their skills before the public.

The workshop will include talent shows (many for service and Red Cross functions), drama, dancing, athletics, self-improvement, community service, arts and crafts, welfare service training, stage productions, creative-writing, storytelling, etc.

Scholarships to date, to help encourage the youngsters, include those of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Paul K. Thayer Memorial Award, and the Charlotte Braan Memorial scholarship.

Adults who already have volunteered their services are Mary Anna Johnson, voice and drama; Helene Cava, drama group; Alice Fontenay, librarian; Mrs. Martha Garbe, publicity bureau; Mrs. Kathryn Jovick, transportation; Mrs. Ann Johnson, make-up and wardrobe; Mrs. Audrey Sallade, office work, and Mrs. Betty Maschinot, office work.

According to Mrs. Irvine, the workshop has aroused heavy interest in the 15 to 19 age group.

TONS of Christmas trees from Westlake homes went up in colorful smoke last week as firemen supervised a massive bonfire on the Westlake basin land near Westlake park. At the request of the improvement association, whose directors watch (at right), DC Scavenger company made a special pickup of trees Tuesday morning last week.

Knights Slate Francis Talk On Legislature

The Marian Council of the Knights of Columbus will hear State Assemblyman Louis Francis give a talk on the "Highlights of the 1957 State Legislature" at its meeting Monday evening at the Eagles Hall in Daly City.

The state legislator will cover new legislation for education, workmen's benefits, social welfare, water development, highways, vehicles, natural resources development, health benefits, and many others. He will also speak on the record state budget, additional appropriations, revenues, and interim committees, particularly those of which he heads as chairman.

Francis, chairman of the State Assembly Subcommittee on Pornographic Literature, will explain to the membership the efforts being made by his committee to combat the menace caused by the sale and distribution of lewd and obscene literature and pictures to minors.

Hearings were recently conducted in Los Angeles by the Committee to determine the necessity for new legislation or changes of existing laws to strengthen the statutes on lewdness and obscenity.

Four Westmoor Students Earn Essay Laurels

Winners of Best-in-School certificates in the 1957-58 annual Poster and Essay contest on "Safer Driving Through Better Vision" were announced today by Dr. Robert G. Rosenberg of San Mateo, past president of the San Mateo County Optometric Society and county chairman for the contest.

Essay contest winners from Westmoor high school were Barbara Fisher, 17, a senior; first; Patricia Enrico, 17, a senior, second, and tied for third were Julie Huculap, 17, a senior.

The Westmoor high school contest was directed by Mrs. Doris Lindfors, English instructor, assisted by Dr. Robert A. Rockstein of Sharp Park.

Dr. Rosenberg said the Best-in-School winners will be entered in the county-wide competition which will be judged this month and the county winners will then be submitted for judging in the state-wide contest, sponsored by the Vision Conservation Institute in cooperation with the National Safety Council and the California Traffic Safety Foundation.

Each of the Best-in-School winners will receive a certificate, Dr. Rosenberg said, and an engraved silver plaque will be awarded the county winners.

In the state contest, first place winners will receive a $200 cash award and an especially designed plaque, plus a free trip with a teacher and parent or relative, to the Vision Conservation Institute's Awards Banquet, February 21, at the Hotel Biltmore in Los Angeles.

Second place winners in the state contest will receive a $100 cash award and a special plaque, and third place winners will be given a $50 cash award and a plaque.

Snake bites and bee stings helped account for 52 deaths in a recent year, the National Safety Council says.

JEFFERSON HI-LITES

With

Maxine Tebeau

Before too long the second semester will be here, and with the changing of semesters comes the changing of student body and class officers.

Campaign signs and pin-ons could be seen throughout Jeff all this week. Campaigning started January 15, and elections will be January 24.

This year a new policy has been adopted for class officers. Before this year, a student running for an office had to be nominated by members of his class. This year anyone wishing to run simply picks up a petition, similar to the type used by student body officers.

In November the senior class gave their assembly, and now the Junior class is preparing for theirs. Rehearsals are underway, and the assembly will be presented January 22.

New Clubs

New clubs have been springing up around Jeff lately. One of the newest is the Biology Club. Newly elected officers are: President, Graciela Garone; Vice President, Linda Saarinen; Secretary, Claudia Montez; and Treasurer, Judy Clayton.

It was reported by Miss Wood, dean of girls, that 28 girls worked at various department stores during and before Christmas vacation. This year it was extremely difficult for girls to find jobs compared to the 98 girls who found jobs last year.

Recently the C.S.F. Club took a field trip to the University of San Francisco. Every member who attended the field trip spent an interesting day on the campus.

The students visited a public speaking class and heard three speeches given by members of the class. They then took time out for lunch.

A beautiful new trophy was added to Jeff's collection after the varsity basketball team took first place in the Palo Alto tournament.

They had to compete with 3 other schools, Lincoln (San Jose), Menlo-Atherton and Palo Alto.

Outstanding performances were displayed by Gary Ryan and Dennis Marc, who were chosen on the all-tournament team.

Letters To The Editor

Broadmoor Rips County Plan On 'School' Road

Dear Editor: Appearing elsewhere in this edition is an article in reference to a second attempt of individuals to put a road through the middle of two adjoining public schools to the Westlake shopping area.

The Broadmoor Property Owners Association is backing this protest not only because it affects their immediate area, but because it affects all people who have children who attend either the Benjamin Franklin or the Garden Village school.

Strange requests have been made of the County Engineering Commission and the Board of Supervisors on many occasions, but certainly this must deserve a special award!

Individual interests, for material gain, are put above and beyond the safety of the countless number of children who now, and in the future, will attend the two mentioned schools.

Eight years ago, the county government set aside this request and County Engineer Grant (now retired) indicated the road would never be considered again. But again it appears! A simple request for a road—right through the middle of the playgrounds of two schools!

Sincerely yours,
K. W. Brugge

Lewkowitz Sets His 10th Annual 'Polio Day' Here

Joe Lewkowitz, Daly City's popular top-of-the-hill service station owner, on January 26 will pump gas for polio—the tenth straight year he has staged the feat.

That Sunday, from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Joe with the help of fellow members of the D.C. Colma Lions Club, will donate five cents on each gallon of gas sold to the March of Dimes campaign. The five cents per gallon represents the usual profit made by the proprietor.

Explains Joe, "My family has been fortunate. None of my children have contracted polio, but many friends of mine have had the unfortunate experience with the disease."

The station is located at 3356 San Jose avenue, across from Bank of America.

Councilman Sanford Vickers, chairman of the Daly City Dimes' drive, and county polio headquarters are aware and appreciative of Lewkowitz' annual efforts.

MOTHERS CLUB IN FIRST '58 MEETING

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Mothers' club held their first meeting of the new year Thursday at the school auditorium at 80 Wellington avenue.

To start the New Year agenda for the club Mrs. Audrey Sallade, Mothers' club President, secured Miss Amy Fudge, public relations representative of the Orowheat Baking Company, as speaker. Miss Fudge narrated a movie film on "The Modern Making of Bread."

BPOA Attributes Festival Success To Many Groups

Dear Editor: At its regular meeting held Thursday, the board of directors of the Broadmoor Property Owners' association approved a motion to extend to your fine organization, and to several other organizations its sincere appreciation of the cooperation and help extended the BPOA during its Christmas festival. Without this help, the festival would not have been the success that it was.

I am sure you will be happy to hear that the board has decided to repeat this program next year, with certain improvements to assure greater participation and enjoyment by all homeowners of this area.

With your readers' umn, therefore, I would like to extend the association's thanks to the Marchbanks Enterprises, the Daly City Municipal Band and the Musicians' Union (Local No. 6) of the American Federation of Musicians, the Hills Bros. Coffee House, the Golden State Dairy, the Muzart Corporation which provided Muzak equipment for our festival grounds, the Vorey Studio of the Dance, the United-Aires male choir from United Air Lines, and the various church and civic groups and individuals who contributed to the huge success of this project.

To you and to them, our deepest thanks and warmest wishes for a happy and prosperous 1958.

Yours truly,
EDW. J. LEE,

OLPH Mothers Tender Thanks For Publicity

The officers and the members of the Mothers' club of Our Lady of Perpetual Help school would like to wish you and your staff a happy and successful New Year, and to publicly thank you for the immense part that your newspaper has played in making our Fall Season of 1957 of activities one of the most successful seasons we have just completed for many years. The part your newspaper played in granting us space for pictures and articles for our parish festival, monthly whists, rag drive, talent show, turkey whist, communion breakfast, silent auction, and monthly meeting announcements enabled our organization to more than meet the allotted goals set for these functions.

An extra special "thank you" too, for the courteous manner in which you and your staff have always received our telephone inquiries and newspaper copy.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Garth Sallade, President of Our Lady of Perpetual Help School Mothers' club; and Mrs. Harold Marsh, publicity chairman; Mrs. David Johnstone, assistant publicity chairman.

A motorist is injured every 23 seconds, the National Safety Council estimates. One person is the victim of a motor vehicle accident every 13 minutes.

Each member present received a loaf of bread.

The pre-school and graduate mothers with Mrs. Cleo Rodriguez as chairman served as hostesses for the social and refreshment period following the business meeting.

OPEN HOUSE PLANS

Three Campuses Set Open House For 'Nursery School Week' Here

SERIOUS intent maps the face of wee Mark Nadler, of Village Play School, who shows a sample of the type of activity the local nursery schools offer preschoolers. Classroom and playground work combine to give the youngsters maximum adjustment for kindergarten.

17 Attend Brisbane Girl Scout Meet

Seventeen ladies attended the recent Brisbane Girl Scout Neighborhood meeting, held in the home of Thyra Schroeder.

Discussed were the cookie sale, registration of Troops, selection of a new neighborhood chairman, plans for the annual meeting of North San Mateo County Council (Pedro Valley school, January 29), and a pot-luck dinner.

Presiding were chairman Ruth M. Wooden and Mrs. Schroeder, official hostess.

The three nursery schools in the Greater Daly City area, each handling record enrollment, open their doors to the public beginning this Sunday, during Nursery School Week, January 19-26.

Gov. Goodwin Knight has set aside the week-long observance, seconded locally by Mayor Joseph Verducci.

The local nurseries are Toyland, 474 San Diego avenue; Village Play School, 46 Dunks street, Colma; and Broadmoor Nursery, Broadmoor Presbyterian church building, on 87th street.

Toyland

Toyland, directed by Grace Wilson, is the oldest and largest (capacity 70 youngsters). It started in November of 1948 with an enrollment of two, moving to American Legion Hall in 1951 with six pre-school children. Average daily attendance at present is 56 tots. A staff of 13 adults, 8 of them teachers, supervise the program. Toyland is a member of the Private Nursery School Association of Northern California.

Mrs. George Mahoney is president of Village Play school, affiliated with the Council of Cooperative Schools, and located one block off Junipero Serra boulevard at 92nd street. Program at Village Play School is under the direction of Kay Seghetti and Rosalind Uvan, assisted by the children's parents who alternate mornings in guiding student activities. Moms attend parent-education classes in child development on Tuesdays to better their instruction.

Broadmoor

Broadmoor Nursery, a non-sectarian, cooperative nursery presided over by Mrs. Mabs E. Guz, houses 30 youngsters. Mrs. Mary Lichtenberg and Mrs. Irma de Martini assist the director as permanent staff members.

With her trained staff, Mrs. Guz has maintained the state-licensed school's objectives of offering a child companionship with others of his own age, so that he may gradually adapt himself to group living and the step into kindergarten. Same goals are shared by the other nurseries.

Toyland will hold open house this Sunday from 1 to 5 in the afternoon, and from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. during the week.

Village Play

Open House at Village Play School is set for Saturday, January 25, from 2 to 4 p.m.

Broadmoor Nursery invites parents throughout the special week, during morning sessions. Also observing the week will be the "Kinderland" nursery at Rockaway Beach, headed by Mrs. Dorothy Feyge. The Coastside school, four years in operation, is affiliated with the Northern California Private Nursery Schools Association. It houses pre-schoolers, ages 2 to 6, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Friday.

PRESBYTERIANS ELECT

Mrs. Jams Fairbanks Named First Woman Elder At Broadmoor Church

The first woman elder ever to be elected at Broadmoor church was chosen last Thursday evening at the annual Congregational Meeting. She is Mrs. James (Sibbi) Fairbanks, of 27 Garden Lane Colma. Mr. Fairbanks has just concluded a three year term as elder, so she, in effect, is taking over her husband's church duties.

Mrs. Fairbanks, a past president of the church Women's Association, has been active in church work here for many years. Rev. Bert Tweedie, minister of North Street church, said, "We realize that this is a change for the all-men session that a church has had since its founding. We rejoice at her willingness to serve as our first woman elder, and welcome her most heartily."

Two other elders were elected to the board for the first time at the meeting. Ray Lichtenberg, 1831 Louvain drive, and R. Paul Elliott, 1029 Gilman drive, both of Broadmoor Village. John Rued, 808 Washington street, Broadmoor, was re-elected to the board after a year's compulsory time off.

Lichtenberg was chairman of the Building Committee, charged with coordinating the design and construction of the new sanctuary, which was opened last Palm Sunday. He is at present chairman of the "Stained Glass Committee" of the church.

Elliott has been a mainstay of the Adult Choir for many years, and a featured bass soloist. He is also public information officer for the local "Moonwatch" program, formed to track the earth satellites when their orbits are locally visible. In addition, he is Secretary of the San Francisco Amateur Astronomer's Association, and an enthusiastic telescope builder.

Rued is the newly-appointed Superintendent of Sunday Schools for the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church. For the past two years he has been acting as treasurer for receipts and a member of the Finance Committee.

Formal ordination of the three new elders and installation of Rued will take place at 11 a.m. this Sunday, January 19. Rev. Tweedie will act as installing officer.

The Congregational Meeting was hosted by the Women's Association, Mrs. Henry Suenderman, president. Other business transacted at the meeting consisted of the reading and approval of annual reports from the various church departments; the presentation and approval of the 1958 budget; the report of the Every Member Canvass Committee.

Girl Scout Party

Brisbane Girl Scout Troop 64 held a combination birthday party at Brisbane Elementary school on January 7. Guests of honor were Scout Alice Daigle, Committee Member Nadine Lorentz, her brother, Bill Hitten-berger, and Charles Donahue. Each girl invited a friend, and dancing and games were enjoyed by all.

Troop 64 members have recently completed their hospitality badges, as was demonstrated at the party.

FOUR LEATHERNECKS

Bricker Family Keeps Marines Well Stocked

By Roy Hurlbert
The Bricker boys of Daly City are well known in the United States Marine Corps. Four of Fred Bricker's sons, reared at 313 Peoria street, have served as Leathernecks—two of them in the Corps at present as career men.

Home over the holidays were S/Sgt. Leo Bricker, 26, and Pfc. Billy Bricker, 20.

Leo, Purple Heart veteran of the Korea conflict, has spent eight years in uniform and plans to "ship over" (re-enlist) in 1959 for six more years. He's a drill instructor at the San Diego Marine Recruit Depot.

Air Branch
Billy, stationed with the Marine Air Wing at El Toro, California, has been active for 12 months, with three years to go on his first hitch.

Jim Bricker, 24, and Frank Bricker, 20, are graduates of Leatherneck duty. Like Leo, Jim was awarded the Purple Heart for combat in Korea. A member of the 1st Marine Division, he survived the Chosin Reservoir trap, being evacuated by helicopter as his encircled and outnumbered regiment made a historic retreat to the east coast.

Fred Bricker Jr., the oldest son at 27, preferred the Army, serving mostly in Germany. He's now a printer with this newspaper.

Give Him Time
Youngest Bricker heir, Charles, a mere 13, is doing well in school. No telling which branch of the military he'll try. The Marines are favored, about 99-1.

Dad Bricker, a widower since 1950, sired 12 children in all.

boys and girls equally represented at the dinner table. Fred Sr. provided for his flock by working for Pacific Gas & Electric of San Francisco, turning in 26 meritorious years before retirement.

... family tradition

The Bricker boys were pretty fair at the books and sports at Jefferson High. Fred, Leo and Jim, each of sturdy construction, were rugged football linemen for Indian teams.

Daughters Married
The Bricker girls all are married, with many children, most of whom will be lectured on the lessons to be learned from duty with the Corps.

Pop Bricker has every right to be proud as Daly City's top family man.

The Marines got a pretty fair shake in the process, too.

CATHOLIC SOCIAL SERVICE SEEKS FOSTER PARENTS

Catholic Social Service of San Mateo County is faced with dire need of finding foster homes for San Mateo children, who through circumstances beyond their control are deprived temporarily of the security of their own homes. These children must depend upon the understanding and warmhearted generosity of San Mateans to rally to the cause by making up to them the priceless gift of home life.

The responsibility of being a foster parent is a noble and rewarding one. But, like all certain qualifications that foster parents must meet. Why don't you call DI 4-0051 and find out about our meetings with prospective foster couples held at our office, 112 N. San Mateo drive, San Mateo, at 8 p.m., when you and we can thoroughly discuss qualifications?

If you feel it is not possible for you personally to become a foster parent at this time, please pass on this information along to someone you know who may be able to answer this urgent call.

Home For Holidays

James Galten, 15, a student at the Chaminade Preparatory High school in Santa Monica, spent the holidays with his family in Brisbane.

He brought as a guest his Hawaiian friend, Ken Ortiz. Both boys are sophomores and members of the varsity basketball team.

In Navy parlance, a "Christmas Tree" is the instrument panel in the submarine used to indicate opening or closing of vent valves, flood valves, and hatches.

Coastside Committee Submits New Report Card To Trustees

A revised report card form was approved by the Laguna Salada Citizens Committee at its January 6 meeting, and was sent with the recommendation of this group to Tuesday's meeting of the Laguna Salada board of trustees.

The chairman of the subcommittee on Reporting to Parents, Mrs. Dave Ellison of Vallejo, was authorized to present the tentative report card with the request that its use be permitted in the fourth grades throughout the Laguna Salada district on February 5.

Such a pilot study was authorized by the board of trustees at the request of the Laguna Salada Citizens Committee. The subcommittee has been working for two years, getting suggestions from parents, educators, and the general public, and studying what has been done in other communities. The committee will ask for suggestions and comments from teachers and parents concerned in the first use of the proposed card, then proceed with making up cards to be used later in similar pilot studies, probably in the first and seventh grades.

Mosaics Class Opens Thursday At Linda Mar

Mosaics, an ancient art form which has been experiencing a very popular revival in the past five years will be introduced to Pacific residents this Thursday evening.

The art consists basically of work in stone, glass, or other such materials embedded in concrete or attached to a frame backing. It is something like the craft of tile setting but with an art application in design. Mosaic tables and wall panels are in popular demand in homes. The popularity has spread to public buildings, many of which are incorporating mosaics in their design.

For the many "do-it-yourself" fans artistically inclined or for that unique addition in home decoration this newly revived art should prove very fascinating. The course will be offered for eight weeks only at the Linda Mar school on Thursday evenings under the auspices of the Jefferson Adult Education department.

Class starts this Thursday, at 7 p.m., and will be under the expert tutelage of Don Carlson, Carlson, who also instructs in landscape painting on Monday evenings, is an instructor in art at Jefferson High school and has taught art classes at San Francisco State college. Those interested need not make reservations but simply appear in class on opening night.

The bedroom is the most dangerous room in the home, according to the National Safety Council.

SM Association For Retarded Convenes Monday

Public is invited to a general meeting of the Parents Association for Retarded Children of San Mateo County, scheduled next Monday night, starting at 8 o'clock, in Veterans Memorial building, 1455 Madison avenue, Redwood City.

Main speaker will be William S. Herbig, coordinator of special education for San Mateo county, who will review the strides made in expanding facilities for the teaching and training of mentally retarded children.

The PARC has just concluded a fund drive, enabling the group to expand services. The organization now provides transportation for nursery school students being trained at the Children's Health Home in San Mateo. A benefit fund is also provided for patients at Sonoma State hospital.

According to a PARC spokesman, when present plans are completed, there will be greatly expanded home counseling service, and a complete survey of the number and the needs of retarded residents of the county.

Woodrow Wilson PTA Sets Salvage Drive

Parents and friends of Woodrow Wilson PTA are reminded of the Salvage Drive scheduled for January 28. Children will take home special shopping bags this Friday. These will serve as containers for old and clean clothing or scraps.

Usable clothing will be sorted and used for welfare aid. Proceeds from the Salvage Drive will be used to purchase a gift for the school from the PTA.

Housewives are urged to get an early start with spring cleaning and help the school at the same time.

JESD Students In 88 Classes Get Eye Tests

A vision-screening program is now being provided for pupils of the Jefferson Elementary school district. Eighty-eight classes are being tested by the classroom teachers under the guidance of the school nurses. These teachers have qualified themselves to give the tests by taking a six-hour course given by the school nurses.

Children whose tests indicate a visual difficulty will be recommended to their parents for a referral to a health advisor for an examination.

It is to be understood by parents and pupils that this testing is merely a "screening" process, and while it will detect a large proportion of those pupils who have common visual problems, it will not detect every pupil needing eye care. The school also recommends that children who show symptoms of eye trouble, even though passing the test, be further examined. Parents should realize that there is no attempt at diagnosing or defining conditions. The school's only concern is that the child performs either satisfactorily or unsatisfactorily where tested.

On the basis of this testing, the teacher will refer children to the school nurse who will make further appraisal and contact the parent. For children whose vision is poor and not correctable there are educational adjustments which can be made in the form of seating arrangements, lighting, large-print books, etc. There are also special classes available for pupils who have severe loss of vision.

The California state law has specified that teachers may test the vision of pupils after completing a six-hour course and receiving a Vision Testing Credential. This course is now being given by Mrs. Helen Delafield, health coordinator, assisted by Mrs. Betty Boykin and Mrs. Georgia Casey, school nurses. Under this plan, it is possible to check all of the children every year.

In order for teachers to qualify themselves for Vision Screening, they must take the course which includes (a) basic knowledge of the structure, development, and function of the eye, (b) basic knowledge of symptoms suggesting eye difficulty, (c) techniques and procedures in administering Snellen and Plus Sphere Tests, (d) practice in administering the above tests under the supervision of a qualified supervisor of health.

Spunky Rams Host Jeff Cagers Friday

Varsity Basketball

Indians Blow Opener To Cap, 53-44; Westmoor Sinks San Mateos, 34-33

By Roy Hurlbert

Jefferson's once-jolted varsity cagers hope to get back on the ball this Friday night when they battle Westmoor's surprising Rams in a Peninsula League city feud at Westmoor gym.

Lightweight teams open the twin bill at 7:30 p.m., and a full house is expected to stir up quite a fuss.

Mike Orlich's Indians, who have enough artillery to win the league, got off to the races on the wrong foot Tuesday night, dropping a 53-44 decision to hot Capuchino.

Cold Effort

Big Dennis Marc, the 6-5 Indian center, and his mates couldn't loosen up in the Cap gym, outpointing their hosts only in the final quarter when it was too late.

Orlich said his quint was miserable, missing too many cinch layups and mugging 17 free throws.

The Mustangs led comfortably at the quarter poles, 12-8, 19-13 and 37-22. Jeff out-tallied Cap in the four stanza, 22-16.

Marc, with 19, was game high, seconded by Cap center Johnny Condren, with 17. Guards Barry Haanen and Gary Ryan got 9 and 7 in the stifled Indian attack.

Orlich plans to juggle his lineup for Westmoor, hoping to return his squad to pre-league par.

The Indian 30's lost to the junior Mustangs, 46-25, as Steve Mezzera's kids again failed to show any signs of playing as a team.

Rams Triumph

Westmoor, which made its debut Friday night, losing to South City, 50-34, bounced back here Tuesday with a last second win over San Mateo, 34-33.

Guard Ross Holgren, high with 10 points against South City, cinched the victory with a 25-footer with seven seconds remaining.

San Mateo led the Rams 29-24 with five minutes left, but two buckets by Dave Simons sparked the comeback.

Westmoor sputtered during the first half, trailing 9-2 and 16-13 at quarters' end.

Holgren's 11 points was tops for both squads. Forward Larry Harper got 9 for the Rams.

Westmoor's 30's were out-classed by a very fine San Mateo lightweight five, 36-26. The victors never trailed, leading at the intermission 21-10. Rog Piazza found the range for 6 points, while Ram mates Bill Fosberry and Jim Heick each got 5.

Coach Byron Van Alstyne's 30's are 1-1 in league standings, having opened with a win over South City.

Eagles Cop 2 Victories From Tribe

Washington High's Eagles of San Francisco swept a twin bill from Jefferson's varsity and 30's cagers Friday afternoon on the Indian court.

The Eagle varsity hustled to a 65-53 victory over Mike Orlich's Peninsula League contenders. Halftime tally favored the invaders, 35-23. Guard Gary Ryan led Jeff in scoring with 17 points. Buddy Watkins posted 23 for Washington.

The 30's of Steve Mezzera were stunned by 51-19. Clarence Hearne set the pace with 14 points. Jeff's Perata got 6.

Orlich said the holiday lay-off caused the sluggish performance against the SF five. The tilt was Jeff's final practice game, leaving the locals a 7-4 record.

Westmoor Drops Cage Debut To Warriors, 50-34

Westmoor's varsity cagers hit a cold streak in the second half Friday night to drop their Peninsula League opener to host San Francisco, 50-34.

Coach Tony Giammona's Rams played even-up with the Warriors in the first half, trailing only 25-22 entering the third quarter. South City then outscored the Daly City five, 25-12, in the last two periods.

Fred Nebiolini was game high with 20 points for the winners. Guard Steve Anderson bagged 15 points.

Junior guard Ross Holgren's 10 topped the Rams. Center Larry Schoenfeldt had seven.

Byron Van Alstyne's Westmoor lightweights tripped the SSF 30's, 25-23. Jim Heick led the attack with 8 points, followed by Bob Goodwin and Bill Fosberry, both with 4. The Rams held the upper hand at the halfway mark, 16-11.

Westmoor Reserves Defeat Burlingame

Westmoor's varsity reserves last Wednesday scored a 44-36 home victory over the Burlingame jayvees.

Dave Simons, the football quarterback, led the Daly City cagers with 12 points. Jim Shattuck bagged 9 and Rich Reece 6.

Ron Montoya's 16 points gave the police squad a 34-28 victory over Our Lady of Mercy, which would have forfeited anyway because enough players didn't show up. Tallying for the PAL were Jim Francis, 8, Robert Hall, 4, and Tom Glasser, Jerry Willis and Richard Hancock, each with 2. Wall's 10 points was high for the Mercians, trailed by Macangio with 9.

Bob Brush sparked the OLPH romp over Olympia. He connected for 14 points. Vic Kulick was next with 8.

Ben Franklin notched its third straight win in the Sixth Grade League, slipping past stubborn Westlake, 18-16. Bruce Hix again was the hero, this time dropping through the winning bucket in the second overtime period. Steve Milam was high for the Falcons with 7. Westlake's Jim Fontenos got 5.
